A hearty thank you to all who showed up to Polk County High School yesterday morning to help pack food for Stop Hunger Now. The Rotary Club Foundation of Tryon, through the efforts of our community, helped to raise funds for the goal of $10,000 used to purchase food for 40,000 meals.

“So, you’re a Baptist . . .”

During the month of July, adults and youth, grades 6-12, will gather for a combined Sunday School experience in the activity building. “So, you’re a Baptist . . .” will explore the good, bad, and the ugly of being a Baptist. In an increasing post-denominational age, when folks know very little about their denominational heritage, and could care about it even less, it is important to understand the unique history and contributions of our Baptist kinfolk. Please join us for this time of education and fellowship.

The Responsive Reading of Psalm 42 Leslie Raymond

As a deer longs for flowing streams, so my soul longs for you, O God.

My soul thirsts for God, for the living God.

When shall I come and behold the face of God?

My tears have been my food day and night, while people say to me continually, ‘Where is your God?’

These things I remember, as I pour out my soul:

how I went with the throng, and led them in procession to the house of God, with glad shouts and songs of thanksgiving, a multitude keeping festival.

Why are you cast down, O my soul, and why are you disquieted within me?

Hope in God; for I shall again praise him, my help and my God.

My soul is cast down within me; therefore I remember you from the land of Jordan and of Hermon, from Mount Mizar.

Deep calls to deep at the thunder of your cataracts; all your waves and your billows have gone over me.

By day the LORD commands his steadfast love, and at night his song is with me, a prayer to the God of my life.

I say to God, my rock, ‘Why have you forgotten me? Why must I walk about mournfully because the enemy oppresses me?’

As with a deadly wound in my body, my adversaries taunt me, while they say to me continually, ‘Where is your God?’

Why are you cast down, O my soul, and why are you disquieted within me? Hope in God; for I shall again praise him, my help and my God.
