“So, you’re a Baptist . . . ”

During this month, adults and youth, grades 6-12, will gather for a combined Sunday School experience in the activity building. “So, you’re a Baptist . . . ” will explore the good, bad, and the ugly of being a Baptist. In an increasing post-denominational age, when folks know very little about their denominational heritage, and could care about it even less, it is important to understand the unique history and contributions of our Baptist kinfolk. Please join us for this time of education and fellowship.

The Litany in Celebration of Religious Liberty

Jeff Harris

Magistrates are not by virtue of their office to meddle with religion or matters of conscience, to force or compel people to this or that form of religion. (John Smyth, 1612)

We rejoice in our freedom and accept the charge to live faithfully within it.

No king nor bishop can or is able to command faith. That is the gift of God. To constrain princes and peoples to receive the one true religion of the gospel is wholly against the mind and merciful law of Christ. (Leonard Busher, 1614)

We rejoice in our freedom and accept the charge to live faithfully within it.

Every person ought to be left free with respect to matters of religion. The Holy Author of our religion needs no compulsive measures for the promotion of God’s cause. (General Committee of Baptists in Virginia, 1785).

We rejoice in our freedom and accept the charge to live faithfully within it.

Everyone must give a personal account to God, and therefore all people ought to be at liberty to serve God in a way that each can best reconcile to his own conscience. (John Leland, 1791).

We rejoice in our freedom and accept the charge to live faithfully within it.

Religion must be forever voluntary and uncoerced. It is not the prerogative of any power to compel people to conform to any religious creed or form of worship, or to worship, or to pay taxes for the support of a creed they do not believe. God wants free worshipers and no other kind. (George W. Truett, 1920).

We rejoice in our freedom and accept the charge to live faithfully within it.

Baptists believe in free churches within a free state. We believe religious liberty to be an inalienable human right and indispensable to human welfare. Profoundly convinced that any deprivation of this right is a wrong to be challenged, we condemn every form of compulsion or restraint in religion. (The American Baptist Bill of Rights, 1939).

We rejoice in our freedom and accept the charge to live faithfully within it.

The Responsive Reading of Psalm 31:1-5, 15-16 Kim McFarland
In you, O Lord, I seek refuge; do not let me ever be put to shame; in your righteousness deliver me.

Incline your ear to me; rescue me speedily. Be a rock of refuge for me, a strong fortress to save me.

You are indeed my rock and my fortress; for your name’s sake lead me and guide me, take me out of the net that is hidden for me, for you are my refuge.

Into your hand I commit my spirit; you have redeemed me, O Lord, faithful God.

My times are in your hand; deliver me from the hand of my enemies and persecutors. Let your face shine upon your servant; save me in your steadfast love.
