The Words for Worship Jeff Harris

We gather here to worship God, the One who loves us unconditionally.

We are blessed to know God's amazing kind of love.

God is calling each of us to be a part of God's beloved family.

Let us set aside all of our cares and worries as we worship God together.

The Invocation Erin Fox

The Responsive Reading of Psalm 82 Candace Wilson

God has taken his place in the divine council; in the midst of the gods he holds judgement:

‘How long will you judge unjustly and show partiality to the wicked?

Give justice to the weak and the orphan; maintain the right of the lowly and the destitute.

Rescue the weak and the needy; deliver them from the hand of the wicked.’

They have neither knowledge nor understanding, they walk around in darkness; all the foundations of the earth are shaken.

I say, ‘You are gods, children of the Most High, all of you; nevertheless, you shall die like mortals, and fall like any prince.’

Rise up, O God, judge the earth; for all the nations belong to you!

If you are a guest, we offer you a warm welcome and hope you will experience a meaningful time of worship. As your offering today, please complete a welcome card, found in the pew pocket, and place it in the offering plate.

Acolytes for today are Lawson Carter and Verae Upton.

The Brotherhood will meet on Monday, July 15th at 6:30pm in the Activity Building. John Spinks will be in charge of the meal and the program. Cost of the meal is $5 and a sign-up sheet is posted in the SS foyer. Jeff Byrd, of Cooper Riis, will be the guest speaker. Please join us for this informative meeting. All men of the church are invited. Come and bring a friend!

“So, you’re a Baptist . . .”

During this month, adults and youth, grades 6-12, will gather for a combined Sunday School experience in the activity building. “So, you’re a Baptist . . .” will explore the good, bad, and the ugly of being a Baptist. In an increasing post-denominational age, when folks know very little about their denominational heritage, and could care about it even less, it is important to understand the unique history and contributions of our Baptist kinfolk. Please join us for this time of education and fellowship.

July 21 Go therefore and make disciples

July 28 God nor government coerces faith

Saturday, July 20th--Children and Parent Day at Carl Sandburg Home: Bring your own picnic and we will have fun together exploring the grounds—we will not tour the home as a group; but, if you would like to take the tour, the cost is $5.00 for adults, children through age 15 are free.

Looking ahead: There will be a Quarterly Church Conference immediately following worship on Sunday, July 28.
